

Application Guideline for University of Fukui Fund for students with reduced income from part-time jobs due to the effects of COVID-19, 2023

The purpose of this fund is economic support for the students at the University of Fukui (except for students who are currently working full time and non-regular students) whose part-time income has been affected from COVID-19. Students will apply for the fund according to the requirement, and we will allocate fund after confirming the requirements.

1. Eligibility: One needs to fulfill all the requirements as mentioned below:

(1) Recipients of the new system for supporting higher education (applicable only for Japanese students), students who have applied for tuition exemption, and students who are in urgent financial need due to reduced income from part-time jobs.

*The recipients include the students who have been diagnosed as having contracted COVID-19 or have become close contacts and have not been able to do some part-time work.

(2) Students who are able to submit a copy of their bankbook or cash payment statement showing the actual amount of income from their part-time job in FY2022 (including compensation for absence from work) and the amount of income from their part-time job in FY2023. You need to prove that your income from the part-time job has been decreased more than JPY 15,000 for the applicable month in 2023 compared to the same month in 2022.

(3) Students whose purpose of part-time work is to pay for school expenses such as textbooks or living expenses such as food, utilities, etc.

(4) The students who can show gratitude to contributors.

(5) The students who can submit the copy of a bankbook with bank name, branch name, classification of an account, account number, and account name so that we can transfer the amount into your account.

2. Amount : ¥10,000 or ¥20,000 or ¥30,000 per month

* We will decide the amount based on the situation of financial difficulty.

3. The period of the support : The president will decide based on the situation of COVID-19 within Fukui.
