When you return to your application to continue work, it will look like this.

The screenshot shows a user interface for an applicant's home page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a hamburger menu icon on the left, the text "Applicant home" in the center, and the user's name "ABBY HELLAUER GEIGER" with a settings gear icon on the right. Below the navigation bar is a secondary bar containing a profile icon, three navigation options: "Applications" (which is underlined), "Profile", and "Message center", and a "Find program" button on the right. The main content area is titled "Summer, 2020" and features a large card for an application titled "Test - TD 20 Launch". The card includes a landscape photograph of a coastline, a "Deadline: 08/08/2020" label, and a circular progress indicator showing "10 of 13" items completed. A "Withdraw application" button is located at the bottom right of the card. A red arrow points from the text "This will alert you how many items you have completed" to the progress indicator. Another red arrow points from the text "Click within the box to get back into the requirements" to the main content area of the application card.

This will alert you how many items you have completed
